Sandy,

Latest from E Div:

Lower Mainland

CIRG GSB using TSG and Uniform members cleared all protesters along 176 Ave and opened the border to north and southbound traffic.

At the 176th Border Crossing in Surrey, BC, protesters remained between on 176 Ave. 25 to 50 people on site since Sunday were refusing to leave and had trucks and campers on the road.

The number of protestors was consistent with the early morning (25-50) and consisted of a group intent on staying for the long term. RCMP CIRG with General Duty and TSG Level 1 began clearing 176 at 2000 hours. A total of 10 persons were arrested, all vehicles were moved. A member on LWOP, for refusing to vaccinate, was arrested at scene.
